

I listen to Klove radio station. Please do not let LPFM replace my klove station. I am a better person when I listen to klove it is hard to have road rage when you are listening to how much God loves you. klove encourages all their listeners. If you have never listened to klove I challenge you to try it for one day. go to klove.com to find your local station. I love the fact that I can be connected to people all over the U.S. and we all are hearing the same message.
